The Alberta Journal of Educational Research

Volume 59, Number 4, Winter 2013

Articles

Kristen Ferguson 535-552 Exploring the Role of Literacy Coaches: A Case Study of Three Schools in Ontario

David Ackerman, Oscar DeShields 553-568 How Ordering of Assignments Can Influence Beliefs About the Self and How These Beliefs Can Impact on Student Class Performance

Glenda L. Black, Maria Cantalini-Williams, Susan E. Elliott-Johns, Ron Wideman 569-590 Evaluation of a Family and Community Engagement Strategy in Three Ontario Communities

Nina Howe, Ellen Jacobs 591-612 Mentors’ Perceptions of Factors Associated with Change in Early Childhood Classrooms

Xavier Fazio, Douglas D Karrow 613-629 Exploring the Professional Characteristics and Contexts of School-Based Environmental Education ‘Leaders’

Man-Wai Chu, Hollis Lai 630-643 Fairness in Computerized Testing: Detecting Item Bias using CATSIB with Impact Present

Reza Pishghadam, Shaghayegh Shayesteh Sadafian 644-661 Parents’ Conceptual Involvement in Their Children’s Education: An Assessment-Oriented View

Francoise Jane Cadigan, Yichun Wei, Rodney A Clifton 662-673 Mathematic Achievement of Canadian Private School Students

Marian J. Rossiter, Marilyn L. Abbott, Sarvenaz Hatami 674-692 Enhancing the Reading of Peer-Reviewed Research in the Teaching English as a Second Language Community

Book Reviews

Jon Reyhner 703-704 Balanced Literacy Essentials: Weaving Theory into Practice for Successful Instruction in Reading, Writing, and Talk, (2012) by Michelann Parr and Terry Campbell
