

The Alberta Journal of Educational Research

Volume 68, Number 3, Fall, 2022

Articles

- |  |                          |   |
|--|--------------------------|---|
| Muhammad Athar Shah   | 297               | Teachers as Reflective Practitioners: From Individualism to Vygotskian Social Constructivism  |
| Julien Elia, Julie Cohen,Anusha Kassan, Hieu Ngo,Kelli Stevens, David Marulanda | 308               | A Qualitative Investigation of the Factors that Enhance, Impede, and Require Attention for the School Success and Engagement of At-Risk Newcomer Students                                     |
| Melissa Corrente  | 340               | Exploring the Personal and Professional Realities of Parenthood and Graduate Studies  |
| Joshua Fitzgerald, John HookerShanshan Hu, Xin Ma                                    | 357372 | Establishing Rapport in Higher Education ClassroomsAffect, Motivation, and Engagement in the Context of Mathematics Education: Testing a Dynamic Model of Their Interactive Relationships |
| Lauren D. Goegan, Devon J. Chazan,Lia M. Daniels                                     | 396               | High School is Over ... Now What? Examining Students Plans for After High School  |
| Kaaryn Cater, Mervyn Hyde,Elizabeth Asbury   | 414               | The Design and Validation of a Self-Report Survey Examining Postsecondary Students' Perceptions of Success: The Perceived Success in Study Survey (PSISS)                                     |
| Mirac Furkan Bayar, Yasemin Taş   | 446               | Effects of Robotic Coding Supported Design-Based Science Instruction on Students' Science Process Skills  |

Book Reviews

- |                             |            |   |
|-----------------------------|------------|---|
| Anah-Jayne Samuelson | 459 | Himawari House, (2021), by Harmony Becker |
|-----------------------------|------------|---|