

BOOKS RECEIVED

AT HOME IN THE COLD: DOMESTIC CULTURE IN ARCTIC EXPLORATION, 1890–1940. By KATHERINE CROOKS. Montreal: McGill University Press, 2025. ISBN 9780228025610. 332 p., b&w illus., index, bib., notes. Hardbound. Cdn.$49.95. Also available in pdf and ebook format.

PAPERS TO APPEAR

Jónsson, J.E., Carlton, C., McCracken, K.G., Seniczak, A., Seniczak, S., Gwiazdowicz, D.J., Fjellberg, A., Kristjánsson, P.O., Owens, B., Coulson, S.J., Afton, A.D., and Alisauskas, R.T. Historic Data on Microarthropod Communities in Nests of Colonial-Nesting Arctic Geese at Karrak Lake, Nunavut, Canada.

Strong, W.L., and Bishop, R.M. Botanical Collecting in Yukon, Canada (1826–2025).

Naves, L.C., Merizon, R.A., Carroll, C.J., and Spivey, T.J. Geographic and Seasonal Patterns of Ptarmigan and Grouse Harvest in Rural Alaska.

Lane, B.E., and Brown, L.C. Monitoring Lake Ice and Snow in the Canadian High Arctic Using Digital Camera Imagery.

Demant-Poort, L., Elsad, E., Christophersen, K.-A.A., and Turmo, A. The Relationship Between Instructional Self-Efficacy and Contextual Factors in Greenlandic Student Teachers' Practical Training.

Burke, D.C., Kielsen, E., Gonzales Lindberg, H., and Winter, J. Designed to Fail: The EU and the Inuit Exception to the Seal Product Ban.