ARIEL
A REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL ENGLISH LITERATURE

ARIEL is published quarterly, in January, April, July, and October.

ARIEL is a journal devoted to the critical and scholarly study of the new and the established literatures in English around the world. It welcomes particularly articles on the relationships among the new literatures and between the new and established literatures. It publishes a limited number of original poems in each issue.

Articles should not exceed 6,000 words and should follow the second edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers or The MLA Style Manual. All articles are refereed blindly (by at least two readers); consequently, names of contributors should appear only on the title page of manuscripts and not as a running head on each page. Two copies of each manuscript are requested. The editors require assurance that authors are not offering their articles concurrently elsewhere. Manuscripts are returned only when accompanied with self-addressed envelopes and Canadian stamps or international reply coupons. Translations should be provided for citations in languages other than French. The editors reserve the right to amend phrasing and punctuation in articles and reviews accepted for publication. While every care is taken in the handling of manuscripts, the editors will assume no responsibility in the rare event of their loss.

Opinions expressed in contributions are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors, the editorial board, or the publisher.

Editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, ARIEL, The University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2N 1N4 (Telephone 403-220-4657; Facsimile 403-282-7298); orders and other business matters to Mavis Page, Business Manager; and advertising copies to The University of Calgary Press at the same address.

ARIEL is indexed in Arts and Humanities Citation Index, British Humanities Index, Humanities Index, MLA International Bibliography, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, Canadian Literature Index: A Guide to Periodicals, and Bowker International Serials Database. Abstracts of articles are published in Abstracts of English Studies. Annual index appears in the October number of ARIEL.

ARIEL is sew-bound for durability.

MICHAEL G. COOKE
1934-1990

We are saddened deeply by the death of Professor Michael G. Cooke, a distinguished authority on English Romanticism and Afro-American, African, and Caribbean literature, who graciously had agreed to be co-editor of ARIEL's forthcoming special issue on Commonwealth Drama.

Michael Cooke was Bird White Housum Professor of English Literature at Yale University, where he served as Director of Undergraduate Studies, Associate Chairman of the English Department, and Master of Trumbell College. He is the author of several books, including Afro-American Literature in the Twentieth Century: The Achievement of Intimacy, The Romantic Will, and The Blind Man Traces the Circle: On the Patterns and Philosophy of Byron's Poetry. In 1988, he was the driving force behind the founding at Yale of The Common Wealth of Letters, an international alliance of literary scholars working in the literatures written in English throughout the world.

In his passing, we lost a warm friend, an inspiring teacher, and a brilliant scholar. We all miss him.
