ARIEL is published quarterly, in January, April, July, and October.

ARIEL is a journal devoted to the critical and scholarly study of the new and the established literatures in English around the world. It welcomes particularly articles on the relationships among the new literatures and between the new and established literatures. It publishes a limited number of original poems in each issue.

Articles should not exceed 6,000 words and should follow the second edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers or The MLA Style Manual. All articles are refereed blind (authorship unattributed) by at least two readers; consequently, names of contributors should appear only on the title page of manuscripts and not as a running head on each page. Two copies of each manuscript are requested. For accepted articles, disks in WordPerfect format are appreciated. The editors require assurance that authors are not offering their articles concurrently elsewhere. Manuscripts are returned only when accompanied with self-addressed envelopes and Canadian stamps or international reply coupons. Translations should be provided for citations in languages other than French. The editors reserve the right to amend phrasing and punctuation in articles and reviews accepted for publication. While every care is taken in the handling of manuscripts, the editors will assume no responsibility in the rare event of their loss.

Opinions expressed in contributions are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors, the editorial board, or the publisher.

Editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, ARIEL, The University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2N 1N4 (Telephone (403) 220-4657; Facsimile (403) 284-0848); orders and other business matters to Mavis Page, Business Manager; and advertising copies to The University of Calgary Press at the same address.

Subscription rate per annum post free: Individual $14.00; Student $10.00; Institutional $22.00; Cumulative Index, 1970-1981, $2.00 (Canadian subscribers add 7% GST — R-108102864). Back numbers and sets on request. Claim period six months.

ARIEL is indexed in Arts and Humanities Citation Index, Austlit, British Humanities Index, Humanities Index, MLA International Bibliography, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, Canadian Literature Index: A Guide to Periodicals, and Bowker International Serials Database. Abstracts of articles are published in Abstracts of English Studies. Annual index appears in the October number of ARIEL.

ARIEL is sew-bound for durability.
