

otak and ego

he has few friends
to his regret
and none to feed his ego each thing he does is a feeble fumble each stone he withstands a sinner's condemnation he trudges daily
a post-trial descent to calvary with dreaded armageddon further and further away without forgiving those who know not what they do
the jewish eunuch
cuts the nazi's balls
yet himself feels the pain (psychological no doubt) his limbo borders on a hellish heaven
and a heavenly hell
where he stumbles through his agoraphobic —

claustrophobic
existence
of the beginning of hope and the end of despair
and vice versa
coming and
going
up
and down
thinking he is good and others evil
yet believing he is not so good and others not so evil
yet believing he is evil and others good
yet unable to make up his mind his greatest enemy
which hunts him
and carves him
and scars him
and leaves him
to his regret
with few friends

KEE THUAN CHYE

(Note: otak is the Malay word meaning brain)
