ariel is published quarterly, in January, April, July and October.

ariel is a journal devoted to the critical and scholarly study of literatures in English around the world, and to the study of the politics of cultural and institutional formations and their inscription within literatures. The journal publishes articles that explore configurations of colonial power and discourses, resistances to colonization and its effects and inter-relations among literatures. ariel prefers articles that raise issues beyond the internal analysis of a single literary text.

Articles should not exceed 6,000 words and should follow the current edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers or The MLA Style Manual. All articles are refereed blind (authorship unattributed) by at least two readers; consequently, names of contributors should appear only on the title page of manuscripts and not as a running head on each page. Two copies of each manuscript are requested. For accepted articles, disks should be submitted in Word format. The editors require assurance that authors are not offering their articles concurrently elsewhere. Manuscripts are returned only when accompanied with self-addressed envelopes and Canadian stamps or International Reply Coupons. Translations should be provided for citations in languages other than French. The editors reserve the right to amend phrasing and punctuation in articles and reviews accepted for publication. While every care is taken in the handling of manuscripts, the editors will assume no responsibility in the rare event of their loss.

Opinions expressed in contributions are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors, the editorial board, or the publisher.

Editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, ariel, The University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta T2N 1N4 Canada (Telephone 403.220.4657; Facsimile 403.298.1123; e-mail ariel@ucalgary.ca); orders, advertising copies, and other business matters to the Business Manager. ariel accepts payment by VISA. Please indicate your card number and expiry date.

In Memoriam

A. Norman Jeffares

Readers of ARIEL will be saddened to learn of the death of A. Norman (Derry) Jeffares, the founding editor of the journal. Educated at Trinity College Dublin and Oxford University, he taught at Adelaide University in Australia before returning to Britain to take up a Chair in the Leeds University School of English. In 1974 he moved to the University of Stirling where he taught until his retirement.

Professor Jeffares was an outstanding scholar of Irish literature who published several books on W.B. Yeats, including W.B. Yeats: Man and Poet (1948), New Commentary on the Poems of W.B. Yeats (1968) and W.B. Yeats: A New Biography (1988). His little anthology of selected poetry of Yeats introduced generations of students to this key modernist writer.

In 1970 he undertook the editorship of ARIEL: A Review of International English Literature, a journal he founded to succeed A Review of English Literature. The change of title is significant for he wished to promote scholarly discussion about the emergent literatures written in English from around the world. Reading, criticism and the exchange of ideas, he felt, had the power to facilitate dialogue across diverse cultures and national boundaries. It is not an exaggeration to say that his championing of “Commonwealth literature” (then) and “post-colonial literatures” (now) was crucial in building what has become an important international area of literary and cultural study.
