

NEW FROM METHUEN

The Critical Idiom

A series of introductory studies of critical terms and concepts which resist precise definition, and are thus fruitful topics for extended discussion. "I was everywhere impressed by three things: the degree of serious, even loving, attention brought to each subject . . . the intelligent conciseness . . . and a quality of alert open-mindedness."

The Times Educational Supplement.

The latest titles in the series are:

Primitivism

MICHAEL BELL

Burlesque

JOHN D. JUMP

Comedy

W. MOELWYN MERCHANT

Each £1.00

Paperback editions: 45p

Forthcoming

The Shavian Playground

An Exploration of the Art of George Bernard Shaw

MARGERY M. MORGAN

An examination of the plays as self-contained imaginative structures intended for theatrical performance.

February £5.00

Shakespeare's Dramatic

Art and other essays

WOLFGANG H. CLEMEN

The longest and most important part of this book is a new study of Shakespeare's 'art of preparation'. The author breaks new ground in showing the relationship between the techniques of preparation and the structure and theme of the plays. He shows, in eight selected plays, the great variety of techniques, as well as the range of meaning which the very concept of preparation involves. Other essays deal with Shakespeare's use of the messenger's report, the soliloquies, and his handling of the theme of appearance and reality.

March £2.50

Shakespeare III

1599–1604

GARETH LLOYD EVANS

Writers & Critics No 72

'If there is a better or more lucid general introduction to current scholarly views on Shakespeare's work, then I do not know of it.'

Martin Seymour Smith's review of the first two volumes in Encounter.

£1 hardback

50p paperback

Oliver & Boyd

Tweeddale Court, 14 High Street, Edinburgh.

---

ARTHURIAN ROMANCE

Seven Essays

Edited by
D. D. R. OWEN

There is probably no area in medieval studies that merits, or indeed currently receives, more attention than Arthurian romance. The present collection of essays, reprinted from FMLS (January 1970), reflects not only this general interest in the subject, but also some of the more important lines of enquiry at present being pursued. There is close textual scrutiny beside the more general view of artistic purposes and postures, comment on certain attitudes of modern scholarship as well as on those of the medieval poets, discussion of works either as self-sufficient creations or in their relationship to other texts or traditions. The authors of the essays were given no brief, and their approaches range from the strictly factual to the expression of more or less provocative opinion. But they will all prove useful and stimulating to those who take an interest in the rich field of medieval literature.

Contributors

TONY HUNT    A. H. DIVERRES    D. D. R. OWEN    D. H. GREEN
W. H. JACKSON    D. S. BREWER    E. B. LYLE

25s net (£1.25)

SCOTTISH ACADEMIC PRESS LTD

Distributed by Chatto & Windus Ltd

---

The Bodley Head

FORD MADDOX FORD

VOLUME V

Memories and Impressions

This selection from his volumes of memories shows off the author of The Good Soldier at his most sparkling. £2.75

Also available, with introductions by Graham Greene:

Volume I: The Good Soldier £1.50

Volume II: The Fifth Queen £2.10

Volume III: Parade's End, I £1.50

Volume IV: Parade's End, II £1.50

BODLEY HEAD

A Bibliography of Yeats Criticism 1887-1965

K. G. W. Cross and R. T. Dunlop

The ever increasing volume of material written about W. B. Yeats in English and other languages is at once a testimony to his status in modern letters, and a problem for the young scholar seeking a way through the labyrinth of Yeats criticism. This bibliography lists the critical writings on Yeats from Katharine Tynan's review of Mosada to the large body of criticism published during the Yeats centenary in 1965, and is designed primarily as a student's handbook. £10.50

Macmillan

---

The Critical Heritage Series

Forthcoming volumes

Clough: The Critical Heritage

Edited by MICHAEL THORPE

Department of English, University of Calgary

£5

Crabbe: The Critical Heritage

Edited by ARTHUR POLLARD

Professor of English, University of Hull

about £4.50

Defoe: The Critical Heritage

Edited by PAT ROGERS

Department of English, King's College, London

about £4

Ford Madox Ford: The Critical Heritage

Edited by FRANK MACSHANE

Professor, School of Arts, Columbia University

£4.50

Ibsen: The Critical Heritage

Edited by MICHAEL EGAN

Department of English, University of Lancaster

about £6

Milton 1732–1801: The Critical Heritage

Edited by JOHN T. SHAWCROSS

Professor of English, University of Wisconsin

about £6

Ezra Pound: The Critical Heritage

Edited by ERIC HOMBERGER

Department of English and American Studies, University of East Anglia

about £6.50

ROUTLEDGE & KEGAN PAUL

68 Carter Lane, London EC4V 5EL

Canadian Agents

General Publishing Co. Ltd., 30 Lesmill Road, Don Mills, Ontario

---