

Notes on Contributors

AGHA SHAHID ALI was born in Kashmir and teaches at the University of Delhi. He has published poems in journals in India and one volume of verse Bone-Sculpture in 1972.

ANTHONY G. BRADLEY is Assistant Professor of English at the University of Vermont. A native of Ireland he obtained his B.A. from Queen's University, Belfast and his Ph.D. from S.U.N.Y. at Buffalo. He has written an article on Adam Bede and an introduction to Sir Leslie Stephen's Studies of a Biographer.

THEO Q. DOMBROWSKI is Assistant Professor of English at Royal Roads Military College, British Columbia. He obtained his B.A. from the University of Victoria, his M.A. from Dalhousie University and his Ph.D. from the University of London.

GEORGE MCWHIRTER was educated at Queen's University, Belfast and teaches at the University of British Columbia. His first book, Catalan Poems, won the Commonwealth Poetry Prize in 1972 and a second Bodyworks was published in 1974. A third will be published in 1976. He is associate editor of Prism International and his poems have appeared in many anthologies and journals.

EDWARD NEILL was born in Perthshire, Scotland. He holds a Ph.D. degree from University College, London and has published work on John Berryman, Wallace Stevens and T. S. Eliot as well as Robert Lowell. He also does occasional reviewing and teaches at Chelsea College (University of London) and the Open University.

DAVID PARKER is a graduate of the Universities of Nottingham and Sheffield (where he taught for two years before taking up a post in the University of Malaya). He is the author of a number of articles.

MARION FERRET received her Ph.D. from Yale and has taught at the University of Wisconsin and at Agnes Scott College. She has published articles on Shakespeare, Marlowe and T. S. Eliot.

STANLEY M. WIERSMA is Professor of English at Calvin College in Michigan. He obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin and has studied on two occasions with Christopher Fry at Sussex. His essays on Fry have appeared in Modern Drama and he has written a booklet on Fry in the Eerdmans series.