

CONTEMPORARY LITERATURE

Founded: 1960
Editor: L. S. Dembo

. . . publishes criticism and scholarship on all forms of contemporary Anglo-American and European literature. In 20 years of publication it has included interviews with both established and rising poets and novelists, and has devoted special issues to single authors or timely subjects. A new feature is twice yearly reviews of selected new works of poetry and fiction.

SPLENDIDE-HOTEL

By Gilbert Sorrentino. Afterword by Robert Creeley. Structured around the 26 letters of the alphabet, this is Sorrentino's reflections on imagination, language, and art, as inspired by the works of William Carlos Williams and Arthur Rimbaud. "... thoughtful, lucid, wide-ranging, witty ... a work of originality and imagination." Hayden Carruth, Hudson Review

Clothbound: $20.00 (ISBN 0-916583-00-7) Limited edition.
Paper: $3.95 (ISBN 0-916583-01-5)

CADENZA

By Ralph Cusack. Afterword by Gilbert Sorrentino. A brilliant novel long unavailable. Irish comedy in its darkest form. "It is—in capitals—A Work of Art." New York Times

Clothbound: $20.00 (ISBN 0-916583-04-X) Limited edition.
Paper: $4.50 (ISBN 0-916583-05-8)

SEASON AT COOLE

By Michael Stephens. Afterword by Thomas McGonigle. This novel is Joyce's Dedalus family transmogrified, transported, transplanted, and Americanized on Long Island by way of Brooklyn. "... language is its pole star, language that careens with a mad sweet Irish lilt." Kirkus

Clothbound: $20.00 (ISBN 0-916583-02-3) Limited edition.
Paper: $4.50 (ISBN 0-916583-03-1)

WALL TO WALL

By Douglas Woolf. First published by Grove Press in the early '60s, this is one of America's first "road" novels. Both satiric and comic, it portrays an America that rings absolutely true in its sense of displacement, loss, and madness. "Wall to Wall is ... a protean commentary on present-day America." Donald Phelps

Clothbound: $20.00 (ISBN 0-916583-06-6) Limited edition
Paper: $4.50 (ISBN 0-916583-07-4)

Commonwealth Women Writers

A special number on women writers of the Commonwealth is planned for 1986. Submissions are invited on the relevant poetry, fiction, and drama; appropriate original poems are invited for our poetry selection. The issue will be co-edited by Aritha van Herk and submissions should reach the editors by May 31, 1986.
