

Editorial Note

We would like to announce the resignation of Christopher Wiseman from the position of Poetry Editor of ARIEL.

Christopher Wiseman has served the journal in an exemplary fashion for the past sixteen years, not only in dealing with the numerous poetry manuscripts crossing his desk, but also as occasional acting editor and co-editor. Throughout his tenure he has represented and maintained ARIEL's ideal of international achievement. We view his departure both with regret and with best wishes for the new endeavours to which he turns his energies.
