

Caribbean Literature Number

The July 1977 number of ARIEL will be devoted to Caribbean literature.

We should like this critical survey to be as comprehensive as possible and therefore invite, for consideration, articles on all aspects of Caribbean literature. Poems also are invited for this special number.

The guest editor for this number will be Victor J. Ramraj, and MSS should be submitted to him at the ARIEL address by 1st March 1977. Decisions on acceptance may not be made until after that date.
