Permission to Publish Form

1. The Journal of Undergraduate Research in Alberta does not claim ownership of copyright or literary property of publication. The publishing party assumes all responsibility for securing permission to publish from his/her supervisor.
2. Articles cannot be used in another undergraduate journal, but may be submitted to and accepted in other journals subsequent to publishing in JURA. Authors must be aware, however, that professional journals may refuse articles submitted or accepted elsewhere – JURA included.
3. Copies of publications will be available on the website www.ucalgary.ca/jura, indexed on Google Scholar, and as part of the National Libraries of Canada.

In signing this form, both author and supervisor(s) agree to the conditions stated above:
